Dear Partners in Mission,

Greetings from Ghana, West Africa!

Thank you for the many notes about our newsletter earlier this week!

We are very excited about Naomi and Michael's wedding in December.

While Naomi got to know Michael years ago at Concordia Wisconsin, we got to know him here in Ghana. We first met Michael three years ago when he started his work of translating the Old Testament up in Northern Ghana.

We often prayed for Michael and were concerned for him as we knew he was living in a remote area by himself and not very nearby other missionaries.

We didn't know our daughter would be part of God's answer to many people's prayer.

Michael is a very kind and thoughtful person. Naomi is very happy and we are happy for both of them.

This week while I'm at home writing newsletters, Joyce is in Wittenberg. Joyce serves as the LCMS regional business manager for Africa. She has a constant schedule of meetings using telephone and internet communications. About once a year or so, the business managers, regional directors and St. Louis staff all get together for face-to-face meetings.

This week they are meeting in Wittenberg. A number of people bought tickets and brought their wives with them.

Yesterday the group had a few hours with President Harrison. Joyce said they got away from the discussion table and spent some time in Wittenberg.

Joyce and I will both be happy when she gets home on Friday evening.

Thank you for your prayers and support! God be with you!
