About Michigan In Touch - LW Supplement

The Michigan In Touch supplement is a monthly publication of the Michigan District, LCMS which appears in The Lutheran Witness, the official publication of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. It also is available in its entirety online at michigandistrict.org. The supplement is a compilation of articles that point to Christ, share God's Word, and celebrate the journey, joys, and challenges of the ministry entrusted to God's people in the Michigan District, LCMS. Michigan In Touch is edited and produced by the Michigan District Communications Department and financed through the District budget and advertising revenue. The audience of the magazine includes professional church workers, ministry leaders, and congregation members. Current circulation is over 2,400.
