

CrossPointe exists to prepare skilled workers for a life of service to Christ, their families, and their communities.

SEMCA 36250 VanDyke Ave Sterling Heights MI 48312

CrossPointe's pilot program is a ministry of the Michigan District of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and so it is Christian in character. We accept and welcome all people at CrossPointe in a spirit of Christian love and hospitality.

Enroll Now!

Visit michigandistrict.org/crosspointe for more information or contact

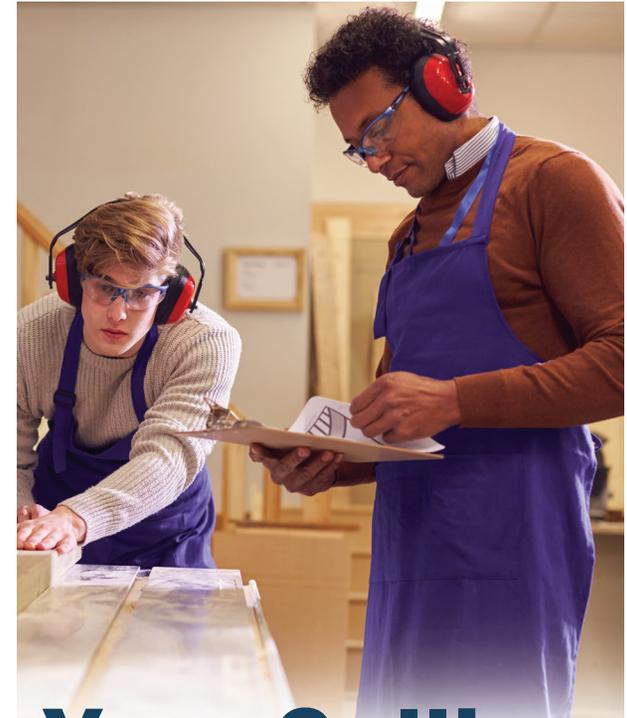

Rev. Dr. Scott Yakimow
360.409.2046

scott.yakimow@michigandistrict.org

SEMCA

Southeast Michigan Construction Academy

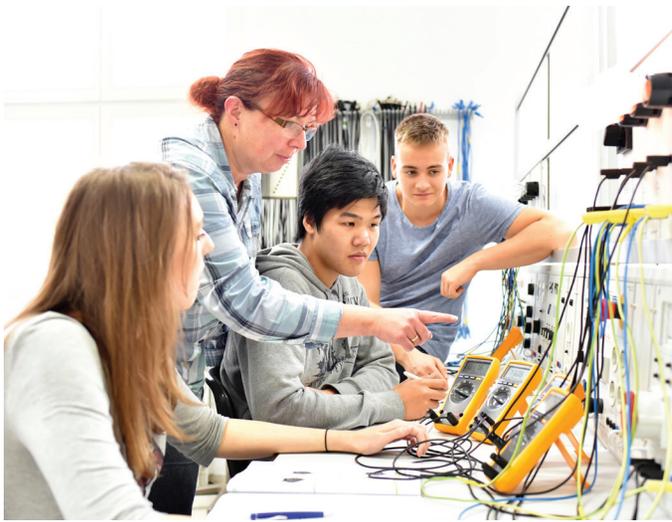

Your Calling Starts Here!

Upgrade your occupation to vocation.

*Establish the work of our hands.
Psalm 90:17*

Center for the Trades
Vocational Training | Christian Living

Partnership with SEMCA

Southeast Michigan Construction Academy offers the opportunity to build your future in the construction trade. This is a lifelong investment that will enable you to:

- Work in your chosen field immediately
- Receive industry-specific knowledge
- Earn nationally recognized credentials
- Learn through hands-on classes
- Maintain job security

You will also earn while you learn!

- Work in your trade during the day
- Attend school 2 nights a week
- Receive job search assistance

Programs Offered

- Intro to the Construction Trades
- Electrical I

Cost

$2,750 for the first semester and $2,250 thereafter. Scholarships are available.

Schedule

Classes take place on Tuesday and Thursday.
 5:00 p.m. Dinner served
 5:15–6:15 p.m. CrossPointe instruction
 6:30–9:30 p.m. SEMCA classroom and shop instruction

Classes start the week of January 5, 2026

What do People say About the Program?

“This is a great four-year program that ensures you’re equipped to be a successful electrician.”

—Gavin L.

“College and a desk job weren’t for me. SEMCA is helping me reach my career goals. I’ve had nothing but great instructors and classmates here.”

—Patrick P.

Instructor

Rev. Christopher Bodley’s public ministry of 33 years has been solely in urban contexts in Florida and Detroit, as well as 12 years in the US Naval Reserve Chaplaincy. He currently is the Michigan District Missionary at Large for Acts 2 Enterprise, deployed to Bethany Lutheran Church in Detroit. Rev. Bodley is driven to equip people to succeed in society and has a passion to see urban kids gain the life and technical skills they need to be productive members of society as he seeks to make Christ known among them. He and his wife, Shikina, have raised five sons and reside in Chesterfield.

